Dr. E. H. Armstrong, the Jacksonville eye specialist, arrived in the city Saturday evening on business.

The foundation for a new cottage for J. D. C. Morris, on Ivy Lane, has been laid and the work of erecting the building will be pushed rapidly ahead.

E. G. Choate, of Minneapolis, Minn., expects to arrive here about Dec. 30th, with three Winton touring cars for use in the lively business at Daytona.

The inclement weather of Sunday retarded church goes to some extent, and the service at the various places of worship were not so largely attended had the weather been at the best.

L. C. McCann has rented the Gill property and will shortly open a first-class restaurant. Mr. McCann is an experienced caterer and hails from Mackinaw Island. Smith & Thomas rented the store.

Truckers report that they were badly in need of rain and the showers of the past two days came at the opportune time. Daytona and its suburbs have many well kept gardens and they look exceptionally well.

A sub pound in the southern section of the city has been built, and the marshal in speaking to a News representative says that the people who reside in that vicinity had better look out for their swine.

An old copy of the New York Organ, a paper devoted to morality, education, temperance and pure literature, was brought to this office yesterday by G.
W. Hull, who found it while tearing down the Jackson house. The Organ bore the date of October 27, 1849. It was a sixteen page paper in magazine form and the typographical appearance looked excellent.

Joseph P. Greaves, manager of the Hotel Alcazar in St. Augustine, has returned to that city from a two weeks' hunting and fishing expedition at Summer Haven, with several of his friends.
Mr. Greaves, with his force, is now busily engaged getting that popular hostelry in readiness for the opening, which will occur on Saturday, Dec. 9. The Alcazar hotel opening practically marks the beginning of the tourist season in St.
Augustine.

ALL ALONG THE EAST COAST...

Frightened By Motor Boat.

A team owned by Geo. Poppell caused considerable excitement opposite the Halifax River Yacht Club, Saturday afternoon, tearing away from its moorings and breaking the shafts from the buggy in a short but spirited runaway.
The horse became startled by the pulling of the engine in Harry Thompson's motor boat.

Got the Tea and the Lady.

Disraeli was in love with a widow, Mrs. Wyndham Lewis. One day, when he went to call, the lady, sitting by the window, saw him approaching and ordered the servant to say that she was not at home. When the maid reached the hall the statesman was hanging up his overcoat.
"Mrs. Lewis, sir, is not at home," said the flustered maid.
"I did not ask for Mrs. Lewis," was the calm, statesmanlike reply.
"But I don't know when she will be back," urged the maid.
"Neither do I," philosophically replied Disraeli, "but I am going to wait till she comes back, so please make me a cup of tea."
He did wait, he got his tea, and he married the widow.

Why the Table Knife Was Rounded.

Table knives until the seventeenth century always had sharply pointed blades, a natural survival from the days when a knife was at once a dagger, hunting knife and table knife and fork combined. The rounded end was introduced from France. It happened that Cardinal Richelieu was compelled to entertain at his table Chancellor Seguier, a man of rude manners, who at the close of the meal proceeded to use his knife as a toothpick. This so upset the cardinal that he ordered the end of every knife in his possession to be rounded, and so great was Richelieu's influence that the fashion was adopted all over the country.

Travel in the Old Days.

Before the days of the railroad travelers from Philadelphia to New York went by wagon. The following old advertisement outlines the process: "John Butler, with his wagon, sets out on Mondays from his house at the Sign of the Death of the Fox, in Strawberry alley, and drives the same day to Trenton ferry, where Francis Holman meets him and proceeds on Tuesday to Brunswick, and the passengers and goods being shifted into the wagon of Isaac Fitzrandolph, he takes them to the New Blazing Star, where Rubin Fitzran-dolph, with a boat well suited, will meet them and take them to New York that night."

Willie's Reformation.

"Your son Willie seems to have got over being round shouldered. Every time I've seen him lately he's been standing up like a man."
"Yes; after years of scolding him for his stooping I tried a new plan."
"What was it?"
"I told him he had a magnificent chest." Newark News.

The Open Fireplace.

I have seen respectability and ambition grouped over the air tight stove.
I have seen virtue and intelligence hovering over the register, but I have never seen true happiness in a family circle where the faces were not illuminated by the blaze of an open fireplace.
O. W. Holmes.

Diplomacy.

Mamma—I hope Willie didn't tell a fib when you found he had been at the jam. Aunt Jane—Not at all! When I discovered that somebody had been at the jam he looked at Fido and said, "I didn't know, auntie, that dogs liked jam."—Boston Transcript.

...Wanted... 1,000 Reporters!

The Daily News wants 1,000 reporters. No, this is not a joke. We really want them, and we won't be happy until we get them.

In other words The Daily News wants every person, male and female, 18 years of age and over, in Daytona and its environs, to get on the staff of the paper. The Daily News wants every scrap of local news that is worth printing to appear in its columns. The best way to get it is to ask the people who know about the news to send it to the paper.

So if you know of anything that has happened, or is about to happen, tell the City Editor about it or write to him.
Let every man and woman, youth and maid in and around Daytona become a reporter The Daily News.
